the newly formed Shasta County, one of the original 27 counties in the new State of California; and

WHEREAS, Fire destroyed the business district of Shasta City on June 14, 1853, including the building in which the lodge met; and

WHEREAS, During the next year and a half the lodge met in the home of Benjamin Shurtleff on a hill overlooking the town; and

WHEREAS, On December 27, 1854, Saint John's Day, the lodge moved in grand procession to its current location, a fireproof brick building on Main Street; and

WHEREAS, Since that time, the Western Star Lodge No. 2 has continuously occupied the building at 15344 Main Street in the Town of Shasta; and

WHEREAS, The lodge has also established a lodge archives and an archives vault on the premises to store, preserve, and display its various relics, documents, antiques, and articles of Masonic historic value; and

WHEREAS, Western Star Lodge No. 2 proudly continues to meet in the manner and character of Masons to initiate, pass, and raise all good men and true who may apply for the purpose and whom they may find worthy; and

WHEREAS, The contributions that the Western Star Lodge No. 2 has made to the local area are invaluable, and reflect an organization devoted to the highest ideals of fraternal and community service; now, therefore, be it
